HOW I WORK

Over the years I have mastered the ways in which I work and this allows you to get the best out of me as your photographer.

As a creative it means the world to me when my clients trust and allow me to get creative in our sessions, equally I totally understand if you do not feel comfortable and therefore ask you to be open with me.

There's lots to factor in as I'm photographing which you may not see, so I try to keep my sessions as chilled and free flowing as possible, and ask that you focus on just being in the moment, embracing the time that you have creating those moments with each other. When I see you getting lost in the moment drowning out any distractions and being intimate with each other it truly ignites my soul on fire.

I always believe the moments unplanned are often the most beautifully captured, and with that being said often people may think they need to get the biggest smile out of their little ones which can often feel intimidating and overwhelming for them. I let them run wild and free and distract them with a game or two allowing them to settle in to their surroundings. My absolute favourite photos are often the ones where you or your little ones are simply being your true selves.

I strive in making my focus you and you only, therefore I never like to rush a session or create an atmosphere that feels anything less of relaxing, I believe this is a true reflection of me and so I don't work well when I feel overwhelmed, and rushed.

And lastly I will be your biggest hype queen!

BEFORE YOUR SHOOT

It's important to ensure you really immerse yourselves into the shoot. It's not often that you get a chance to rekindle your love and ignite that spark.

Prepare to fully forget any daily stresses and feel the energy between you, sparking intimacy, laughter, and lots of silliness.

TOP TIP!

The best way to get those insane oh my gosh photos is simply to forget I'm there, play with each other, make each other laugh, and get super close and intimate these are the the moments you'll see me melting to the floor and gush over how insane you look!

We will chat laugh and capture every detail!

Expect to run, play, and lift each other up!

STYLING

COLOUR PALETTE

When it comes to styling and what colours to wear, the best colour options are neutral and earthy tones, cream beige's, sand, browns, and whites. These help make the main subject area the focal point of the photo.

TOP TIP!

Keeping things minimal in your outfits is key to achieve this. Play with different textures, this is the golden nugget to achieving a minimal, earthy, natural, timeless look in your photos. Linens, Cotton, Cheesecloth materials work amazingly well with my style of photography and my favourite of all time anything crochet or knitted!

LOGOS & PATTERNS

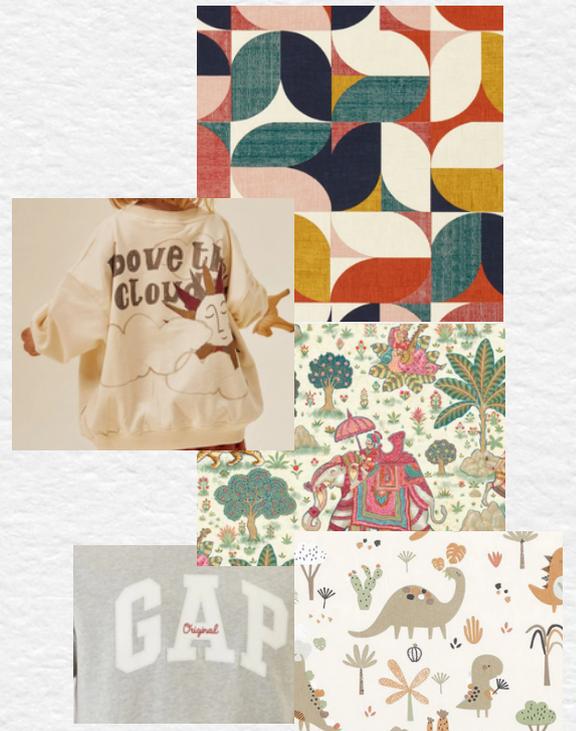

Staying away from branded logos and harsh patterns are the best way to ensure we capture the very best for your photographs this is because they can be distracting from the main subject.

I like to have very minimal distractions in your photos keeping to dainty florals, flannel, and minimal stripes is key when achieving this.

PATTERNS THAT WORK WELL

PATTERNS TO AVOID

LOCATIONS AND STYLING

When having a photoshoot in a location its best to not to try and blend in with the background.

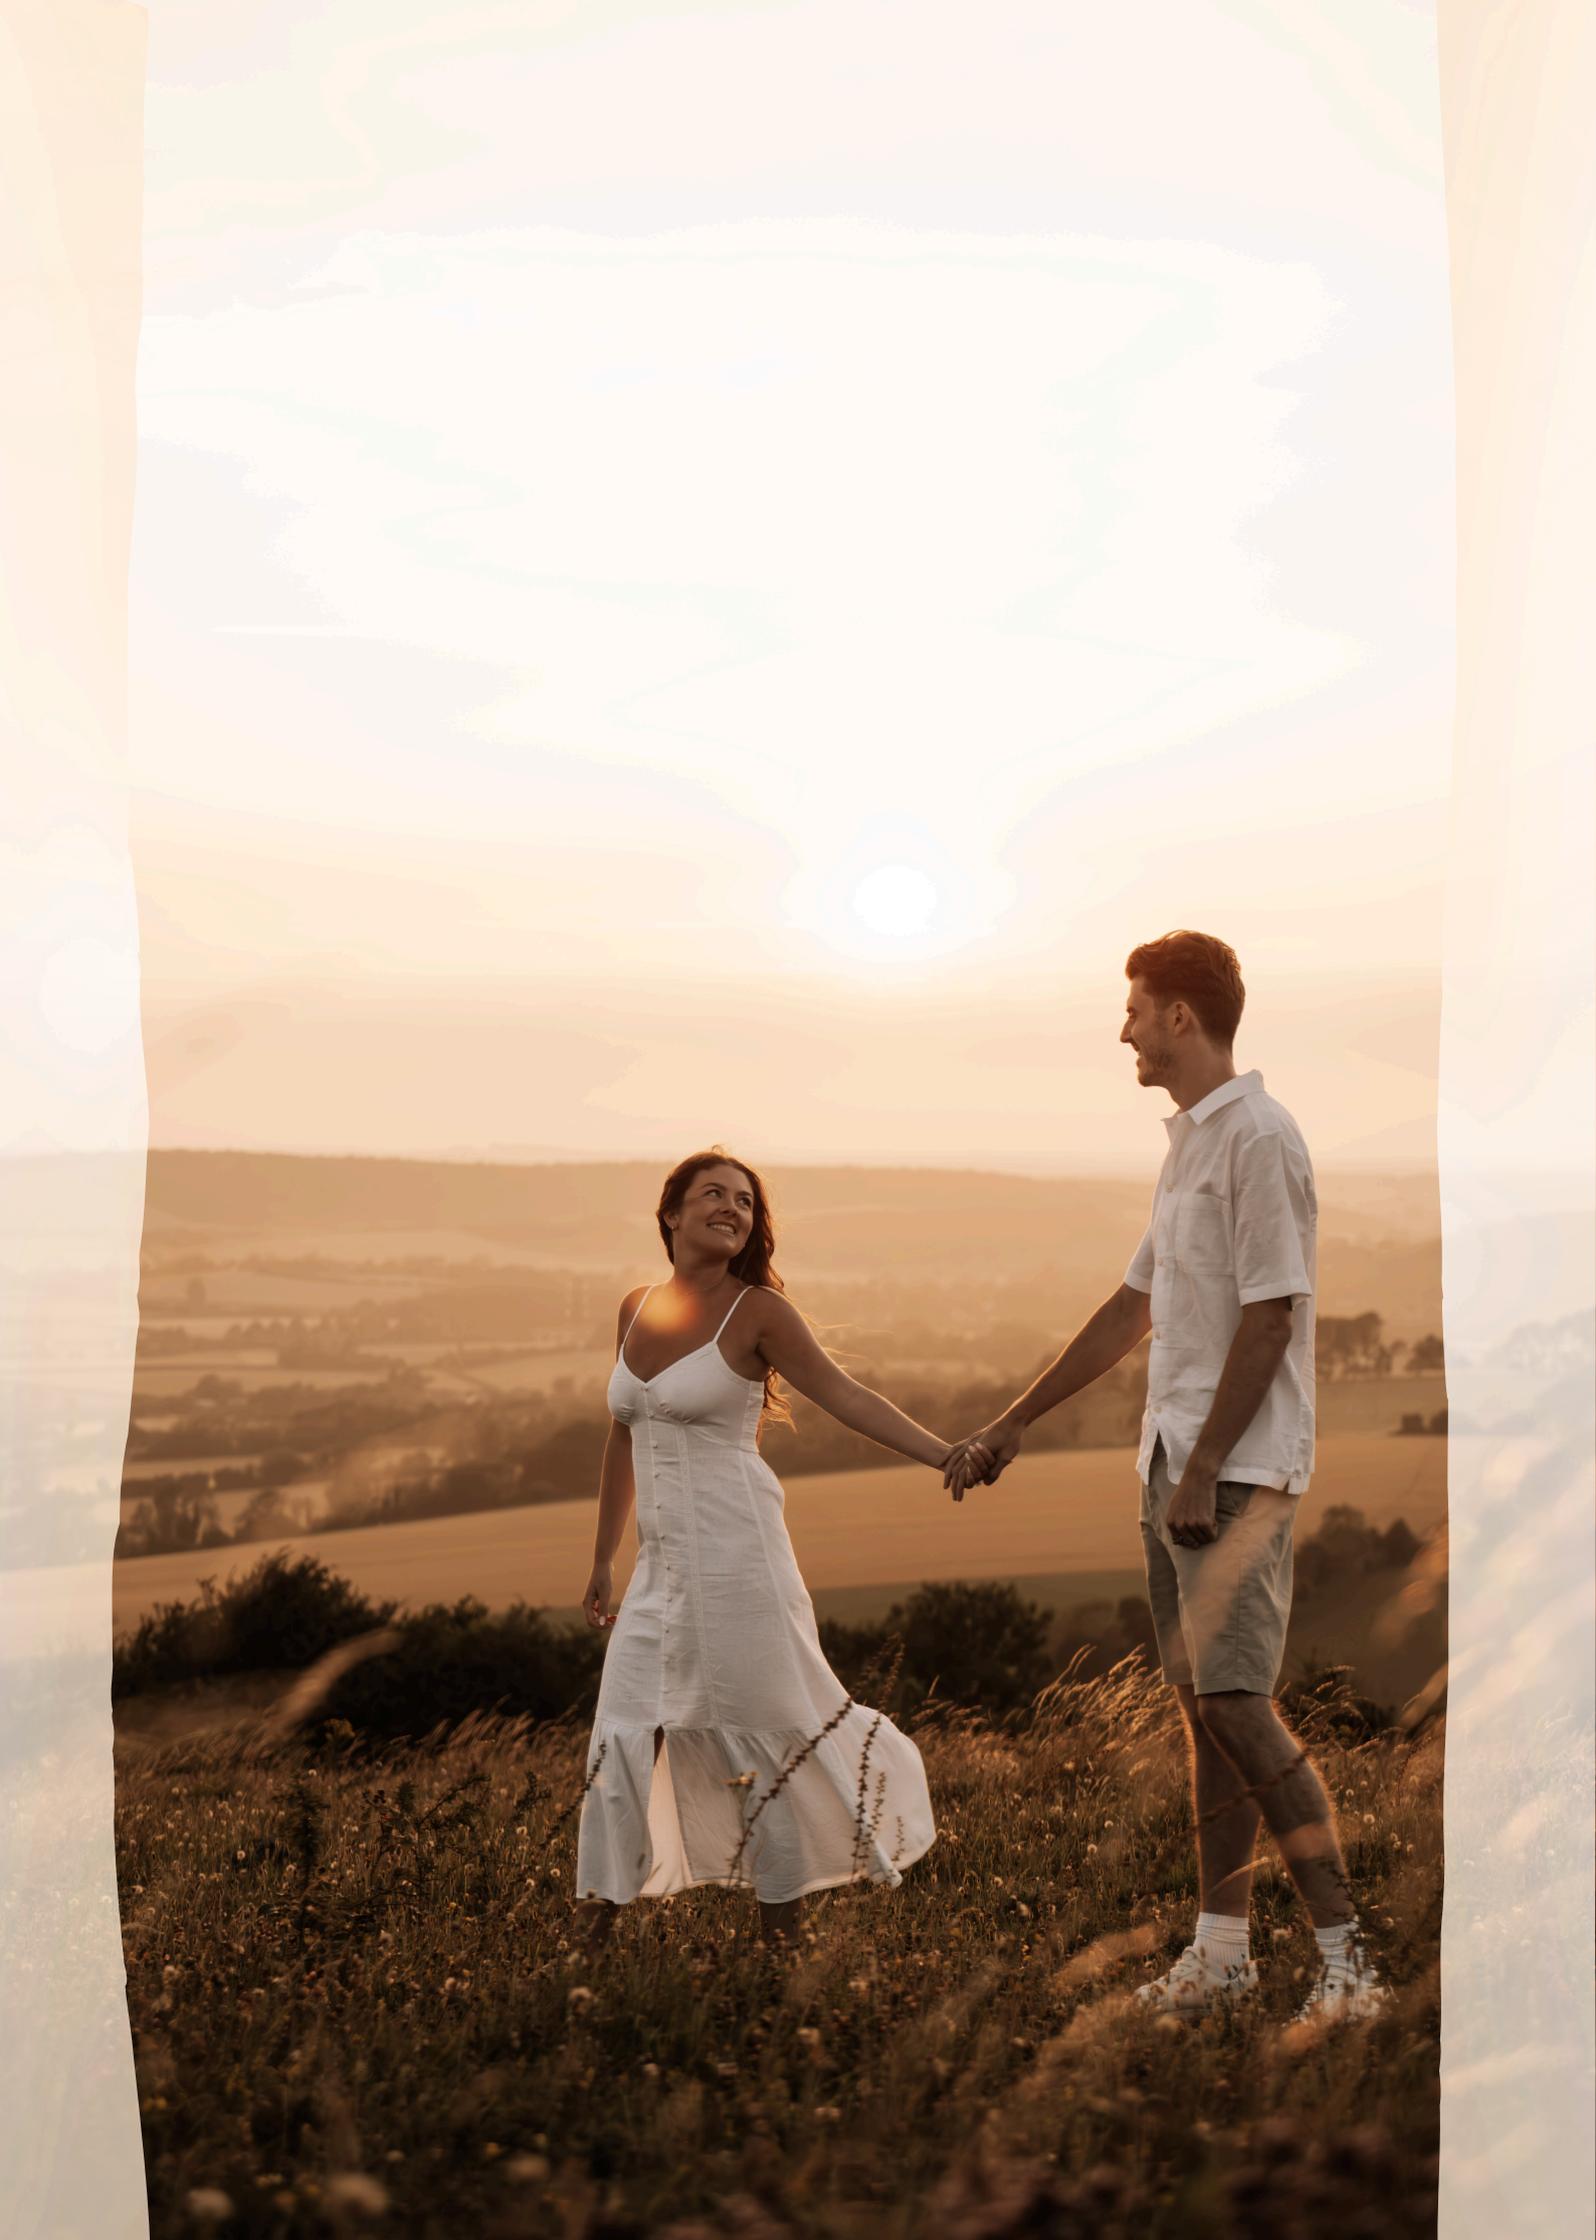

If for example you are in the forest your surroundings are likely to be green and browns in this case I would avoid wearing these colours and would wear creams and beiges.

HANDS & TOES

Please be aware your hands will be photographed, fake tan and chipped nails will be visible. On location It's likely you may be asked to be bare foot.

WINTER WOMENS

When thinking about Autumn and Winter the best way is to give yourself plenty of layers try to not stay in one shade and mix and matches shades that match. Please also note that I may ask you to remove shoes please bare this in mind
